

Presenter Biography

Charles Hamilton is a Real Estate Attorney practicing in Lincoln, Nebraska. He has owned his own practice, Hamilton Property Law, since early 2007. Prior to private practice, Mr. Hamilton practiced as a Deputy County Attorney in charge of civil matters for Adams County, Nebraska for four years. Mr. Hamilton has been a member of the Nebraska State Bar Association since 2001, and has been on the Board of Directors for NPZA since 2006. Mr. Hamilton has presented on the Open Meetings Act for the last years at the NPZA annual conference, and loves discussing the ins and outs of the intricacies of the Act, and the repercussions for not following the Act.

Presentation Abstract

Analysis of the Open Meetings Act from all angles. Will analyze the different sections of the Act, the repercussions of not following the Act, new legislation that could potentially affect the Act, and how all of this impacts governmental agencies of all types.